

James Madison Program in American Ideals and Institutions

THE REBIRTH OF AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONALISM

THE POLITICAL THOUGHT OF
MARTIN DIAMOND AND HERBERT STORING

Monday, September 25, 2017
Prospect House, Princeton University

Keynote Address
9:00 to 10:20 a.m.

Michael Zuckert, Nancy R. Dreux Professor of Political Science, University of Notre Dame

The Political and Constitutional Thought of Herbert Storing 10:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

Joseph Bessette, Claremont McKenna College
David Nichols, Baylor University
Ralph A. Rossum, Claremont McKenna College
Catherine Zuckert, University of Notre Dame
Chair: Gary Schmitt, American Enterprise Institute

The Political and Constitutional Thought of Martin Diamond
2:00 to 3:45 p.m.

Alan Gibson, California State University
William A. Schambra, Hudson Institute
M. Richard Zinman, Michigan State University
Chair: Jeffrey Salmon, U.S. Department of Energy

Concluding Reflections
4:15 to 6:00 p.m.

Paul Carrese, Arizona State University
James Ceaser, University of Virginia
Jeffrey J. Poelvoorde, Converse College
Chair: Michael Maibach, James Wilson Institute on Natural Rights and the American Founding

James Madison Program Constitution Day Event
Cosponsored by the Program in American Studies
Funded by the Bouton Law Lecture Fund

 PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

Open to the public - RSVP to ebehling@princeton.edu or call 609-258-1122.
For full details on panelists, please visit our website at <http://jmp.princeton.edu>.