

Schedule

Thursday, November 30, 2006

3:30-5:00 p.m.

Neoconservatism and the American Commonwealth

THE CONSTITUTIONAL IDEA

James W. Ceaser, University of Virginia

Respondents: William Kristol, The Weekly Standard;

Adam Wolfson, former Editor, The Public Interest;

Roger Scruton, Princeton University

NEOCONSERVATIVES AND THE COURTS

Ken I. Kersch, Princeton University

Moderator: Robert P. George, Princeton University

5:15-6:45 p.m.

Social Policy and Urban Policy

WELFARE POLICY

Lawrence M. Mead, New York University

CRIME AND URBAN POLICY

John J. DiIulio, Jr., University of Pennsylvania

SOCIAL POLICY AND OLD AGE

Ramesh Ponnuru '95, National Review

Moderator: Adam Wolfson, former Editor, The Public Interest

Friday, December 1, 2006

9:15-10:45 a.m.

The Character of American Capitalism

THE MODERN CORPORATION

Irwin M. Stelzer, The Hudson Institute

ECONOMIC POLICY

Murray L. Weidenbaum, Washington University

Moderator: John B. Londregan, Princeton University

11:15 a.m.-12:45 p.m.

Education

PRIMARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS

Joseph P. Viteritti, Hunter College, CUNY

THE UNIVERSITIES

Harvey C. Mansfield, Harvard University

MULTICULTURALISM AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

William B. Allen, Michigan State University (on leave) and Princeton University

Moderator: Robert P. George, Princeton University

2:15-3:45 p.m.

Manners, Morals, and Modern America

MARRIAGE, CHILDREN, AND FAMILY

Kay S. Hymowitz, Manhattan Institute

BIOETHICS

Diana J. Schaub, Loyola College in Maryland

RELIGION AND AMERICAN POLITICS

Wilfred M. McClay, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga

Moderator: Eric Cohen, Ethics and Public Policy Center

4:00-5:45 p.m.

Roundtable: The Public Interest

William J. Bennett, Morning in America

William A. Galston, The Brookings Institution

Nathan Glazer, Harvard University

Wilfred M. McClay, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga

Moderator: William Kristol, The Weekly Standard